

HIDEKO BARTELL

HIDEKO BARTELL

Hideko Bartell a.k.a. Wonton have done a few years of assisting in promotions and distributions for her industrial friends then she decided to work in the music industry in 2006 and got hooked on it ever since. Her first event promotion was successful in Tokyo called, " Brooklyn zoo", sponsored by XLIDER , RANE SERATO and CLUB JUICE MAGAZINE, and it was done with all the love and help by so many good friends and family of zulu nation Japan. She have worked with DJ King Tone of Universal Zulu Nation Japan, DJ Hokuto, DJ Shu-G, DJ Ta-shi, DJ Mar. Axis, David Whitaker. Artist Dec, Shiro and Nao in that first gig and dramatically grown her network in hip hop community ever since then as she is personally friends with people such as DJ EQ-Knock, Easy Mo Bee, Crazy legs and rock Steady Crew Japan just to name a few. She's experienced in translating legal contract documents in the music industry for a few years, translated RANE SERATO MIXERS advertising materials and brochure materials, Dipset artists bios, international tour and project materials, all from English into Japanese. She had also worked on the making of a radio show in 2006. In 2008 She co-promoted an event called, "Bilingual Flo" which once again packed the venue with unforgettable excitement. She had co-promoted Vinyl Soul, a hollywood based Latin soul band, for 6 months in Tokyo and successfully exposed them in Tokyo market and expand their fan base after many CD sells and concerts. She was associated with boombox Global, assisting the executive director in NYC since 2008, highly and successfully completed the very first DIPLOMATS DIPSET Japan Tour in May 2009, from then on decided to go separate ways with BoomBox Global and successfully complete KMC with 3 U.S. artists to attend in two cities in Japan, Tokyo and Osaka. In November 2009, Tokyo's monthly event started with DJ Shu-G, DJ Yasu, DJ D-Skool at Roppongi 57 and had one party at Roppongi club NV with DJ Mar, DJ Yasu, DJ Ryota and DJ ChaCha Jones of ATL. In November 2009, Wonton's Pilgrimage at Karma Lounge NYC working with Sumso Basic Promotions NY helped merge Wonton with them with a marketing assistant, Napoleon Lewis as team Wonton as a part of Sumso Basic crew with Mikey D, Mc Lotto, current partner Jay Street and DJ El-Rhan we succeeded 2 parties in November. In the same month, She've also hosted Benny Negro and Frankie Bonez show on November 18th in Upper West manhattan . She also made a main cast appearance in a music video . She booked Rock Steady Crew, Crazy Legs at Roppongi 57 for her December gig as a DJ, opened by DJ Yasu. At same time working on on going projects of Timberland and Justin Timberlake Japan tour, King of the Beats tours, Jadakiss tour, just to name a few, and be a part of promoting U.S. artists for Tokyo market as booking artists and events, CNN and Dainjamentalz exclusive international booking agent for Asia region, Managing Dinco D of the Leader of the New School, MC Lotto of verbal harassment and 2 Tokyo artists. Red carpet awarding and being one of the judges for the world music and independent film festival and Covering Tokyo's underground hip hop stories off the scene for DC Drama magazine global section

(www.thedcdramamagazine.com/home/dcdrama-global),

Modeling for artists for their promotional purposes.

In 2010 May She decided to go separate ways with Dinco D around the same time she start her own online shows called, "The Real Deal" and "Up Close & Personal" and she is successfully expanding her exposure and spreading hip hop underground scene to the world. In addition, she's now working on "Silent Weapons Campaign" with Wu Tang Management and a few other international deals with Wu Tang Management as she continues to do radio show appearances and booking US acts domestically and internationally and promoting 2 new underground artists and never stop the hustle.

HIDEKO BARTELL